

LOCAL & NATIONAL CAMPAIGNING: With the emergence of alternative sites at Shell Haven, Felixstowe and Harwich, it has become absolutely clear that there is no overriding national need for a container port at Dibden Bay. In conjunction with the excellent Residents' organisation, I shall fight this development by continuing our campaign at Westminster as well as at County and Constituency levels.

Together with Desmond Swayne in New Forest West, I shall keep pressing for the new Lymington Hospital, and shall carefully monitor the proposed National Park status which Labour is imposing on the Forest. Desmond and I worked closely together in the last Parliament. Both of our voting records were amongst the highest of all Conservative MPs.

In some 50 Parliamentary speeches and several hundred Parliamentary questions, I have raised issues ranging from artificial limbs, mental health and mixed-sex wards, to student unions, voting systems, defence, intelligence and security. I was a leading opponent of the reduction of the homosexual age of consent from 18 to 16. For those with access to the internet, a full record of what I have said and done politically is available on my website at: www.julianlewis.net.

It would be a great privilege to be your Member of Parliament again after the General Election and I would greatly welcome your support.

WHAT CONSTITUENTS SAY ...

As well as living locally, Julian has his Parliamentary office at Cadnam rather than at Westminster. He and his team, consisting of Colin Smith and Di Brooks, have tackled hundreds of constituents' problems. Here are just a few extracts from more than 300 letters of thanks:-

- "Just to let you know ... my appeal was allowed. Thank you so much for your time and support which did wonders for our morale." [From: Dibden Purlieu]
- "Without your intervention we would have received nothing from the Education Department." [From: Hythe]
- "I am sure that, had you not intervened, the Crown would not have accepted liability." [From: Calmore]
- "It is very refreshing to have a supportive and caring MP such as yourself." [From: Totton]
- "It is therefore my pleasing duty to thank you personally, as well as your able assistants, for the backing and support which has led to this satisfactory outcome." [From: Marchwood]
- "We are sure your correspondence with the Education Authority played a big part in their decision and we are very grateful." [From: Blackfield]
- "I must admit I could not see a way clear of this problem until I remembered something about a letter to the local MP from my Army days." [From: Langley]
- "We shall never forget your generous help in these matters, both of which have been completely successful." [From: Holbury]
- "Thank you again for your assistance, without which I am sure I would not have been able to plan for our honeymoon." [From: Pilley]
- "I want to express my gratitude to you and your staff, particularly Di Brooks and Colin Smith, for the invaluable support and understanding shown to me." [From: Lyndhurst]
- "Knowing that we had the support of our MP gave us all a great lift. This is not the first time ... and I marvel at the very quick action that you have always taken." [From: Foxhills]
- "You have achieved in two weeks what I have been unable to achieve in three months!" [From: Beaulieu]
- "Thank you for the trouble you have taken ... This is much appreciated and rekindles my faith in the Parliamentary system." [From: Brockenhurst]
- "Julian Lewis has over the last two years worked tirelessly on [our daughter's] behalf." [From: Bramshaw]
- "Thank you very much for coming to visit us and for spending so much time and taking such an interest in our work here." [From: Minstead]
- "I feel New Forest East are very lucky to have you as our Conservative Member of Parliament." [From: Ashurst]
