A MAN OF LETTERS

Congratulations to Tory Defence Spokesman Julian Lewis on winning the Royal United Services Institute's Trench Gascoigne Prize for the second time in three years. It is unprecedented for the award – for an essay on defence and security – to have been won by the same person twice, let alone in so short a period.

Daily Telegraph – 3 January 2008

THANK YOU, DR. LEWIS...

- "You have clearly read my letter and taken the time and care to respond from the heart ... Thank you for giving me the benefit of your own experience and for the advice you have offered." – EW, Holbury
- "Thank you for sending a copy of your response to ABP on the Dibden Bay consultation. We thought it was an excellent and well thought-out set of comments." – B & JP, Dibden Purlieu
- "My life was in utter ruins before I approached you ... Knowing you were just a telephone call away gave me courage ... Justice has at last prevailed." – 'AB', rape victim who had been sued by her attacker
- "My wife and I have petitioned you on various matters that we have felt strongly about and, on each occasion, you have responded robustly and positively." – D & HJ, Norleywood
- "I can report that your letter to the New Forest District Council has had a remarkable effect." – JC, Totton
- "I would like to thank you on behalf of the committee, patients and staff of Solent Surgery for all your support over the last few months." – MB, Hythe
