

WHY MUST WE VOTE, YET AGAIN, JUST TWO YEARS AFTER THE LAST ELECTION?

DR JULIAN LEWIS (CONSERVATIVE)

- There's a simple answer – from 2017 to 2019, our Remain-dominated Parliament refused to honour the result of the EU Referendum. MPs blocked a 'clean break' Brexit, and sabotaged our planned 31 October departure.
- Losing her majority in Parliament led Theresa May to negotiate a desperately weak Departure Deal. We were offered 'Brexit-in-name-only', which is why Eurosceptics like Steve Baker, Sir Bill Cash, John Redwood and I all voted to reject it.
- Boris's New Brexit Deal – though not perfect – is a huge improvement, and that is why every Conservative MP (including all 28 Eurosceptic 'Spartans', of whom I'm one) decided to vote for it on 22 October.
- Yet, the Deal cannot proceed, without unacceptable changes from Labour and Lib-Dem Remainers in Parliament, unless they are replaced by new Conservative MPs.

Please help me to help Boris deliver Brexit, so that we can move the country forward.
